Visa Exemption for Holders of Ordinary Passport

Considering the ASEAN Framework Agreement on Visa Exemption signed in Kuala Lumpur in July 2006 and with the view to further strengthening friendly relations between ASEAN Governments and peoples and to promote tourism, the Government of the Republic of the Union of Myanmar has been in the process to implement the ASEAN Framework Agreement on Visa Exemption for ordinary passport holders. Myanmar has already signed such an agreement with the Lao People’s Democratic of Republic and in the process of signing with Indonesia and Vietnam.
